

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls stop high consumption situation and stresses the transforming the society into a productive society

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, on the third evening of Muharram in his office in Baghdad Monday 25/9/2017, urged to control consumption practiced by the Iraqi society, indicated that the production level is not adequate with the size of potentials possessed by Iraq on both economic and human power levels.

\r\n

His eminence warned from deception and temptations of the devil, which block man's ability to have a good visions and analysis, indicated that the devil beautifies things and then abandon the man, stressed on the importance of time management to make use of time for doing useful activities, for time is precious and irretrievable.

\r\n

His eminence pointed to negligence and preoccupation with the life as one of the barriers that block insight of a man, pointed out that the straitened life mentioned in the Noble Quran to the people who avert from praying God is not explained by the lack of money or having wealth, but refers to reassurance, peace of mind and conscience, indicated that nations that uphold their rituals and standards are lively nations, citing the stand of Iraqis in the face of terrorism, which shocked the world and became the focus of respect and admiration of all peoples whom their security and cohesion were compromised when targeted by terrorism using most basic methods.