

Badr organization declares itself as a separated bloc from the Supreme council and out of Al-Mihrab Martyr foundation

On Sunday 11th of March, 2012. In a statement after a meeting held between the leadership board of the Badr organization and the Supreme Council, Badr organization has declared itself as an independent organization from the Iraqi Islamic Supreme council and his leadership presented by Sayeed Amar al-Hakeem. The meeting held to discuss the way of political cooperation and coordination between them after the independence of Badr organization out of Al-Mihrab Martyr foundation.

The statement emphasized that Badr organization is an independent political bloc from al-Mihrab Martyr and his leadership presented by Sayeed Amar al-Hakeem, in order to enable, as the two blocs to bear their political responsibilities clearly, as the statement showed.

The statement mentioned that the independence of the both leaderships does not reduce the importance of the common work and the high coordination between the both sides for what the religious and national concern needs, indicating that the leaderships and the staff of the Supreme Council and Badr organization has been tied up by the sacrifices of their great martyrs and with rocky principles and approaches to follow the proper Islamic approach and the religious authority orders, and according to the national fundamentals legislated in the Iraqi Constitution for serving Iraqi people and achieve his legal hopes, reminding with the great role played by the Supreme council and Badr organization in fighting the regime of Saddam, defeating it and founding a constitutional, democratic and federal ruling in Iraq.

Here is the text of the statement:

In the name of Allah, the most gracious, the most merciful

“And say (unto them): Act! Allah will behold your actions, and ( so will ) his messenger and the believers”

A common statement by the Supreme Council and Badr organization

Our dear fellow citizens... everyone realizes the roles played by the Supreme Council and Badr organization to cherish the achievements attained by our people in fighting the regime of Saddam defeating it and founding a constitutional, democratic and federal ruling in Iraq. The Iraqi people knew the Supreme Council and Badr organizations as one approach with different specialties and tasks for each other, to meet at the unity and the aim of the bloc...hence, Sayeed Muhammad B. Al-Hakeem and Sayeed Abdul-Aziz al-Hakeem, for one hand, stressed of preserving the unified political approach for the two foundations. and on the other hand, stressed on the organizational independence for each foundation, which was the approach adopted and followed by the Al-Mihrab Martyr foundation along the previous time.

Today, after the great developments and fixing the democratic and electoral concepts and after series of discussions and meetings, the two blocs decided the necessity for a step forward and declaring the independence of the two blocs' leaderships too, to make it compatible with the organizational independence.

The Islamic Supreme council of Iraq and Badr organization declare with full awareness that they are two independent foundations ... and what they are seek for, is to enable the blocs to achieve their tasks and responsibilities clearly...and as in the past, the independence of the organizations did not prevent them to work within al-Mihrab Martyr's bloc...therefore; the independence of the two leaderships will never reduce the common work and the high coordination between them with what the religious and national concern wants.

The leaders and the followers of the Supreme council and Badr organization were tied up by the sacrifices of their great martyrs and rocky approaches to follow the Islamic and the Imams' (PBUT) way the, the orders of the religious authority and according the national principles legislated within the Iraqi Constitution, resolved to keep serving our people which are the real inspiration source whom we all seek to serve and achieve his rights.

God mercy the martyrs of the Supreme Council and Badr organization, especially Sayeed Muhammad B. Al-Hakeem, Sayeed Abdul-Aziz al-Hakeem and those of Iraqi Islamic and national movement, peace be upon you.
