Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, sent a cable of condolences on Wednesday, February 4, 2015, to King Abdullah II of the Hashemite Kingdom Of Jordan, extending to His Majesty his condolences for the martyrdom of pilot Moaz al-Kasasbeh. Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim expressed his deep regret and shared the feelings of sorrow with the King and people of Jordan and with the martyr's family. His eminence strongly condemned the brutal crime, which reflects a barbaric thought and approach new to the history and civilization of our Arab and Muslim nation, praying the Almighty to spare the Jordanian people all afflictions. Text of the cable :

In the name of Allah, the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate

Your Majesty King Abdullan bin Al Hussein
King of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan
May Allah's peace and blessings be upon you

We have received with deep regret the news of the martyrdom of pilot Moaz al-Kasasbeh who was killed by the terrorist group of ISIS. As we share with Your Majesty, the Jordanian people, the Jordanian armed forces and the martyr's family the feelings of sorrow, we strongly condemn this brutal crime, which reflects a barbaric thought and approach new to the history and civilization of our Arab and Muslim nation,
We pray the Almighty to have mercy on him and grant him Paradise, and spare the Jordanian people all afflictions.
