

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Receives Gratitude and Appreciation from King of Jordan for Having Extended his Condolences on the martyrdom of Pilot al-Kasasbeh

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received gratitude and appreciation from His Majesty the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan King Abdullah II in response to a telegram sent by His Eminence in which he extended his condolences on the martyrdom of the Jordanian pilot Muaz al-Kasasbeh.

His Majesty King Abdullah expressed, in a telegram sent by the Jordanian Royal Court Chief Fayez Tarawneh, his appreciation for the noble and sincere feelings of Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, wishing His Eminence good health and happiness and that God protect him from all evil.

Here below is the telegram text:

Your Eminence Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim
Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq
Baghdad

I would like to bring to Your Excellency the gratitude and appreciation of His Majesty King Abdullah II Bin Al-Hussein (may Allah protect him) for the noble and sincere feelings you have expressed in your telegram to extend your condolences to him on the martyrdom of the Pilot Captain Muaz Safi al-Kasasbeh, wishing you good health and happiness and that God protect you from all evil.

Yours Sincerely,

Chief of the Royal Hashemite Court
Dr. Fayez Tarawneh
