

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim: The Spread of the Phenomenon of Terrorism Calls for an International Effort and for Collaboration and Coordination Between the Arab and Muslim Brothers

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, sent a cable of condolences to His Excellency Abdel Fattah Al Sisi, the President of the Arab Republic of Egypt today Tuesday, 30/6/2015. His eminence expressed in the cable his deep regret for the martyrdom of Egypt's Prosecutor General Hisham Barakat and highlighted his strong condemnation of such terrorist practices that target the lives of citizens and bring insecurity and instability to the country. His eminence also affirmed that these acts are inconsistent with the divine message and human values, and assured that the spread of the phenomenon of terrorism calls for an international effort and for collaboration and coordination between the Arab and Muslim brothers to eradicate it. Sayyid Al Hakim also extended his sincere condolences to the families of the victims and prayed to the Almighty to grant peace and security to Egypt, the symbol of Arabism.

Below the text of the cable:

Excellency Mr. Abdel Fattah Al Sisi

The President of the sister Arab Republic of Egypt

May Allah's peace, mercy and blessings be upon you

We have received with deep regret the news of the martyrdom of the Prosecutor General Hisham Barakat. We strongly condemn such terrorist practices that target the lives of citizens and bring insecurity and instability to the country, and are inconsistent with the divine message and human values. We assure that the spread of the phenomenon of terrorism calls for an international effort and for collaboration and coordination between the Arab and Muslim brothers to eradicate it.

We extend our sincere condolences to Your Excellency and the families of the victims and pray for peace and security in Egypt, the symbol of Arabism.

Ammar Al Hakim
