

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Sends a Cable to Tunisian President Condemning the Terrorist Attack on Citizens and Tourists There

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, condemned the terrorist attack in the sister Republic of Tunisia on innocent citizens and tourists. He considered that the terrorist incident aims to destabilize Tunisia and the region and abuse the lives of their citizens, stressing the need for all peace lovers to unite under one front to face and overcome this challenge.

This came in a cable that Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim sent to Tunisian President Mr. Beji Caid Essebsi on Tuesday, June 30, 2015.

Below the text of the cable:

Excellency Mr. Beji Caid Essebsi
President of the sister Republic of Tunisia

May Allah's peace, mercy and blessings be upon you,
We have received with regret the news of the terrorist attack in the sister Republic of Tunisia on innocent citizens and tourists. As we strongly condemn these terrorist attacks that aim to destabilize Tunisia and the region and abuse the lives of their citizens, we reiterate the need for all peace lovers to unite under one front to face and overcome this challenge.
I extend to Your Excellency and to the Tunisian people my deepest condolences.
