

Al-Hakeem confirms: no toleration or forgiveness with the terrorists whose hands are stained with the Iraqi bloods

On Monday 13th of February 2012, Sayeed Amar al-Hakeem the head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq visited Tall Afar and met Turkman people there and praised the huge roles of the Turkmen of Iraq in building their country, as a key in the Iraqi reality, memorizing the martyrs and sacrifices made by the Turkmen and the rest of the people of Iraq defending their country and religion.

This event took place in meeting the people of Tal Afar, during his tour in Nineveh province, today, where he was warmly welcomed by the people of Tall Afar.

His Eminence called for more harmony and solidarity among the various sects, tribes and politicians in the district of Tal Afar, warning of being dragged behind the enemies' attempts, recalling its bright history in unity and peaceful coexistence among all social parts in Tal Afar.

His Eminence called for more harmony and solidarity among the various sects, tribes and politicians in the district of Tal Afar, warning of being dragged behind the enemies'

attempts, recalling its bright history in unity and peaceful coexistence among all social parts in Tal Afar.

The Youth; the builders of the present and future

Sayed Amar al-Hakeem stressed the necessity to give the young people a larger role in building their city and developing it , describing the young people as the builders of the present because they bear the new project of the new Iraq as they can defeat the difficulties and problems .

Al-Hakeem also expressed his regret upon the lack of services and reconstruction in Tal Afar, stressing the importance of the unity and recalled the history and civilization of Iraq so as to enhance and build Iraq side by side with the other advanced countries in the world.

No forgiveness to the terrorists

On the other hand, Al-Hakeem stressed Iraqis will for in not to forgive any terrorists whose hands are stained with the blood of innocent Iraqis, stressing that Iraq would not allow himself never to become the hostage to terrorism, noting that the government all the joints bear the responsibility in achieving security, stability and peaceful, emphasizing the importance of everyone's efforts to help the country defeating its political crisis and publish services.

His Eminence also pointed out that the voting box makes the Iraqi people through the election decide whom is the best for the leadership and management of the country affairs to achieve full development.