

Al-Hakeem visits First International Exhibition of Agriculture and Food at Najaf

On Friday 17th of February 2012, Sayeed Amar al-Hakeem, the head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq visited - during his tour in Najaf province - the first international exhibition of Najaf for agriculture and food, in the Grand Hall of Najaf.

Al-Hakeem with a number of Najaf officials took a tour at several wings in the Exhibition where special offers of various agricultural materials, food and industry equipment.

His Eminence praised creating such exhibitions at the Iraqi provinces in order to see the international experiences of agriculture in the field and increase investment opportunities. To be mentioned that the exhibition is held in participation of more than 50 Iraqi, Arab and International companies from Lebanon, Bulgaria, Germany, Iran, Indonesia, China, Turkey and other countries that showed modern agricultural equipment