

Al-Hakeem emphasized the necessity to pay better attention and distinct concern to Najaf Province

On Friday 17th of February 2012, Sayeed Amar al-Hakeem, the head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, met during his tour at Najaf province, offices managers and branch offices of al-Mihrab Martyr in the province.

Al-Hakeem emphasized during the meeting that the officials are in need to make more progress and efforts in order to provide services to citizens in the province, stressing the importance of cooperation and solidarity among all Government departments and agencies in order to accelerate the pace of the reconstruction

His Eminence called on al-Mihrab Martyr followers to increase the presence and attendance with and among the citizens to hear their problems, pointing to the need to gain more attention to Najaf for its religious position and cultural background where hundreds of thousands of visitors come to visit annually from all over the world