

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim congratulates His Excellency President Chi Jin Bing on his election as President of the Popular Republic of China

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq (ISCI), congratulated His Excellency President Chi Jin Bing on his election as President of the Popular Republic of China. This came up in a congratulatory letter which His Eminence sent to the President of the Popular Republic of China on Wednesday, March 20, 2013.

His Eminence expressed his wishes for the success of the President of the Popular Republic of China in bearing the burdens of the high responsibility and to achieve more progress and prosperity for the Chinese people, expressing his confidence in the necessity of enhancing the bilateral relations between Iraq and China in order to serve the interests of both Iraqi and Chinese nations.

Here is the text of the telegram:

His Excellency President Chi Jin Bing, President of the Popular Republic of China

Good Salutation

It pleases us to warmly congratulate and bless you on the occasion of your being elected as President of the friendly Popular Republic of China, expressing our hopes for your success in bearing the burdens of this high responsibility in order to achieve more progress and prosperity for the friendly Chinese people. We also would like to express our confidence in the necessity of strengthening the bilateral relations between Iraq and China and to work together to serve the high interests of the nations of both countries.

Please accept our sincere regards.

Ammar al-Hakim

Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq

Baghdad on Jumada I 5, 1434 A.H. coinciding with March 18, 2013 A.D.