

Our Youth

A publication of lectures delivered by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim (May Allah protect him) in some youth gatherings where he tackled the sport and youth topic, the problems the sport fact is facing, and how to rectify the concept of sport. Then he moved to discuss the investment of the youth energies, while stressing the importance of being patient. Then he talked about the role of the youth in the national project, showing that the youth are the hope for success. After that, he explained how youthfulness is a blessing that must be ultimately exploited in the spiritual formation. Finally, he concluded with the topics of youth and the golden age, the sport and the sportsmanship.
