

Building and Management of the State

A first part of a publication in which we highlighted a number of social, political, economic and developmental issues faced today by Iraq, showing its main problems and how to resolve them to reconstruct the state and the society based on justice, wealth, social progress and national sovereignty.