

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: The referendum move had exceeded red lines, Iraq will not compromise its unity and the area will accept new maps

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, on the sixth evening of Muharram held in his office in Baghdad Wednesday 27/9/2017, urged to immunize the community from contaminated ideas and the effects of contaminated environments that have invaded the society because of easy access to the digital world without restrictions or limits.

His eminence indicated that the occurrence of atheism in Iraqi society is because of these contaminators, which is allowed to enter the Iraqi society, noting the importance of keeping the doors open for misdemeanants to return to community.

His eminence stressed the importance of worship, honesty and delivering awareness to future generations and upbringing them on honesty and integrity and not teaching children indirect lying, pointed to many obstacles placed by the devil in front of man to block his insight.
