

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: The bond with the Imam Mahdi and religious authority is a bond to the legitimate argument

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, on the seventh evening of Muharram held in his office in Baghdad Thursday 28/9/2017 that the bond with Imam Al-Mahdi (may god hasten his release) and the religious authority is a bond to the religious law argument, indicated the bond strong and the inevitable extension between the Hussein revolution of reform and the Mahdi revolution of justice and redress injustice and unfairness.

His eminence pointed to the importance of commitment to methodology, obedience, loyalty and compliance to orders.

His eminence stressed the importance of preparing for Imam Al-Mahdi project, support it and defend it, pointed to characteristics of Imam Mahdi's followers with strong heart, purity, high commitment and devotion to their cause, called on to pray for Imam so it would stand by them when asked for assistance and indicated that commitment to the methodology of Ahlu al-Bayt is a sign of a believer's insight.