

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives a Yazidi delegation and confirms his support to hold a general conference for them

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad Monday 4/12/2017 received a Yazidi delegation, his eminence affirmed his support for the Yazidi component, indicated that this component is a qualitative addition to the Iraqi nation and not to be measured by quantity but its qualitative presence.

His eminence affirmed his support for holding a general conference for the Yazidi component, called for the unity among all people of Iraq, adherence to the united Iraq and resilience to save Iraq from the current crises, pointed out that the next challenge is a service challenge and Iraq must succeed in this challenge.