

With the beginning of the new year, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim visits Al-Hanan House for the disabled individuals and calls to support this segment of community

Head the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, visited Al-Hanan House for the disabled individuals in Baghdad Monday 1/1/2018

His eminence, after checking the health conditions of house patients, stressed the importance of caring for persons with disabilities, to include their cases as an integral part of the relevant sustainable development strategies and taking all legislative, administrative and other measures to ensure that this segment of society receive their right.

His eminence called upon all wealthy and service providers to provide support to this segment which deserves all attention and care, pointed seeking to provide what builds the country step by step, meet the aspirations of the people and save Iraq from the current difficult circumstances.