

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the President of Iraq to discuss commitment to the constitutional schedule of parliamentary elections

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met his excellency President Fuad Masum at his Excellency's office Wednesday 3/1/2018

His eminence with the President Masum discussed constitutional obligations to the parliamentary elections and legislation of the parliamentary and local council elections laws, his eminence stressed the importance of commitment to schedules as it the most important proves of democracy.

His eminence stressed the importance of dialogue between the federal government and the Kurdistan Regional Government, indicated the importance of arbitrating the Constitution and laws in force to resolve the issues between the two sides, the possibility of resolving the crises is more likely to occur if there is a will to find solution and having the principles of waiver and meeting in the halfway.

regarding the reality of Tuzkhurmato area, his eminence stressed the importance of providing proper atmosphere for coexistence, resolving disagreements and conclude the local administration of the city of Kirkuk, his eminence stressed that maintain victory is the responsibility of everyone, because victory was achieved with the blood and tears, the cries of bereaved mothers, women widows and orphans.