

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim calls on youth to invest their young age to constantly work on develop their capabilities

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad met a large crowd of youth sports professionals and agencies Friday, 5/1/2018. called on Iraqi youth to invest their irreplaceable young age to constantly work on developing their abilities, indicated that the ambition in limitless and must continue to learn and develop potentials in all domains.

His eminence pointed out the importance of investing time, commended the presence of youth at all stages of the Iraqi experience and most recently but not lastly confronting and defeating Daesh, his eminence stressed to abide by obedience to God Almighty, high morals and sport spirit, provide service people, adhere to ambition and optimism, and favor pros over cons and admit mistakes if committed and favor public interest over private interests.

On political aspects, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stressed the importance of handling politics with a sport spirit, explained the importance of reaching the win-win situation for all without focusing on the last profit maker or the final target achiever, pointed out that Iraq had won the military challenge represented by a Daesh occupation of Iraq cities, and won the political challenge that threatened the unity of Iraq, and won the societal challenge was faced by restoring harmony and rejecting sectarian strife and discrimination.