

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim presides meeting of the Al-Hikma National Movement founding conference members in Baghdad

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, presided the monthly meeting of Al-Hikma National Movement founding conference members held at his eminence's office Baghdad Sunday 14/1/2018.

His eminence stressed the importance continuing successes achieved in the founding conference, praised the nation wide presence of different sects and components to discuss public concern, political issues, and needs of the next phase. His eminence underlined the importance of field visits and providing service to the people, transforming the slogan from words to the tangible action represented in service provision.

His eminence stressed the importance of innovation in finding proposals and creativity in service provision, pointed out that service has many dimensions and ways, part of it depends on the policy of reciprocal service. His eminence stressed the need to communicate with both political powers and citizens and explain the Al-Hikma National Movement project, the fair modern state that are in progress to be achieved.