

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim visits families of martyrs and stresses providing care and commitment to guidance religious authority

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, visited a number of martyrs' families in Diwaniyah Wednesday 17/1/2018

His eminence urged to provide care of the families of the martyrs and grant them privileges commensurate with sacrifices made by their children as the minimum prerogative offered to them, citing the religious authority guidance that linked the life of the nation with care provision to families of martyrs.

His eminence indicated that forms of care provision are many, including better opportunities in employment, schools or scholarships plus the need to obtain legal rights and work to solve problems that prevent delivering prerogatives to their rightful owners.

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stressed that the care to martyrs' families is not only a governmental task but a community mission, indicated that the survival of society and the interests of the people was met thanks to the sacrifices of the martyrs, therefore everyone is involved with this care and all from their own level.
