

Meeting tribes of Bani Khalid .. Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls on the Iraqi competencies to address the next phase and take their roles

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, called competencies to address the next phase, urged on Iraqi tribes to support their competent sons to provide services to the Iraqi people.

His eminence met Bani Khalid tribe elders and figures at in the host house of Sheikh Hussein Al-Jazzar, his eminence stressed the importance of embarking Iraq to the next phase and investing opportunities, and the need to leave the vacillation despite all the achievements, pointed to the existence of achievements, yet it do not meet the aspirations of the people and the potential of the homeland. His eminence praised factors of Iraqi victory represented by the people and religious authority and youth, emphasized anti-corruption action with new methods and pay attention to agriculture and industry through provision of sage management, noted that it is only achieved through providing a plan and a team capable of converting the program into a reality to benefit everyone.