

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls to focus on the features of the Al-Hikma National Movement that distinguishes it from other parties and movements

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met with the National Relations Bureau of the Al-Hikma National Movement in Wasit province Wednesday 31/1/2018

His eminence called to focus on the features of the Al-Hikma National Movement that distinguishes it from other parties and the political movements in Iraq, indicated that the Al-Hikma National Movement is characterized by the presence and empowerment of youth, the presence of women, nationalism and clear vision.

His eminence stressed that the Al-Hikma National Movement proved and translated the empowerment of youth through active presence of youth at the top of the hierarchy in the Al-Hikma National Movement institutions and in the political and executive bureaus, plus empowering women and the quota allotted to women in the general authority and the political bureau by 25%. In addition to the active national presence, not a formality presence, and openness to the entire national space. His eminence emphasized that clarity of vision and well-organized program are remarkable features of the Al-Hikma National Movement comparing to other movements.