

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls to redouble efforts for orphanages support

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, visited Baraum Wassit Orphanage in Wasit province Wednesday 31/1/2018.

His eminence called to redouble efforts to care for orphans and related institutions concerned with orphans service, noted that the care provision to orphans shouldn't be a government mission, but a community mission and all active sides must bear the responsibility towards this segment of community.

His eminence praised the level of satisfaction shown by the orphans at the Baraum Wassit Orphanage, level of care and provided service, called to grant orphans some privileges to empower them in their lives, plus fostering the educational aspects.