

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim: Youth, Patriotism , Women Empowerment and a Realistic Program are distinguishing features available in the Al-Hikma National Movement comparing to other parties and movements

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met a large group of youth talents of Baghdad Saturday 3/2/2018, his eminence indicated that patriotism, women empowerment and the realistic program are distinctive features of the Al-Hikma National Movement comparing to other parties and movements, indicated that the patriotism pursued by the movement is different from any other alleged patriotism by others, because it is a national openness to everyone under the umbrella of the homeland.

His eminence indicated that the Al-Hikma National Movement, is an excellent youth movement, and the percentage of youth representation commensurate with their size in the Iraqi society, plus empowering, depending and supporting youth and expressed support for any youth agency of any type or under any title. His eminence pointed to the feature of women empowering and their active presence through the allocated quota in all sections of the movement up to the Political Bureau.

His eminence explained that the feature of placing a realistic and clear program, that is prepared by a competent team, is putting into consideration the priorities of the upcoming phase.

His eminence stressed that the 2018 elections are a turning point to shift Iraq from instability to stability and state-building, stressed the need to modernize discourse and take into consideration the interests, aspirations requirements and priorities of the nowadays generations, urged the Iraqi voter to choose wisely and not to miss the opportunity provided by the ballot boxes.