

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim honors a number of creative persons of science, arts and sports

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, received a number of creative persons in his office in Baghdad Saturday 17/2/2018, his eminence honored a number of creative persons of science, arts and sports, stressed the need to care for creative persons and auspice for this segment of people, and provide all resources of creativity and communication.

His eminence stressed the importance of art in life, and fast delivering and documentation of ideas, in addition to the effects of sport in self-discipline and spreading the culture of competition, team-spirit and focusing on goals, stressed the need to communicate with creative persons and listen to them to receive their ideas and aspirations and to know the obstacles they face, his eminence indicated that the duty of caring for creativity is the duty of everyone, the state and society.