

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with head of the Coalition of Democracy and Justice, Dr. Barham Saleh, to discuss latest developments in the political situation and the crisis between Baghdad and Erbil

Head of the National Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim in his office in Baghdad received head of Alliance of Democracy and Justice , Dr. Barham Saleh, Wednesday 28/2/2018

His eminence with Saleh discussed the latest political situation in Iraq and the crisis between Baghdad and Erbil.

His eminence called for resolving the unsettled issues between Baghdad and Erbil in accordance with the Constitution and law, indicated that all crises can be resolved providing solution management, the culture of waiver and meeting half way.

His eminence discussed with Saleh the latest developments in the political situation and the preparations to perform the entitled upcoming elections. His eminence stressed the importance of running based on electoral programs and avoid political dichotomy, pointed out the importance of national majority in the upcoming phase with the presence of the main components of Iraq in order to achieve the balance between pro-government and opposition.