

Marking the National Teachers Day .. Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim calls for supporting life conditions of teachers

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, Thursday, 1/3/2018, called for supporting decent living conditions of the teachers and contribute to consolidate sound foundations of mature education process.

Marking the National Teachers Day, his eminence expressed gratitude and commended the builders of the new youth, who are close to the level of the righteous chosen to provide guidance to nations, pointed out that this occasion honors this missionary community, and expressed his congratulations to the teachers.

His eminence demanded to support and provide decent life conditions in order to strengthen the foundations of a mature and advanced educational process that will take upon itself building of man and the nation.