

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim visits nursing home in Karbala and calls redoubling services provided to them

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, visited the nursing home Friday 2/3/2018 part of his tour in the holy city of Karbala, his eminence praised the level of services provided, called for redoubling service provision.

His eminence pointed out that caring for elderly is the responsibility of everyone. The task is not limited to the state, but civil society is called upon to assume its responsibilities in this regard, stressed the need to benefit from some energies in the field of consultation and sound opinion.