

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim visits a number of martyrs' families and calls for fairness

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, during his visit to Najaf Wednesday 7/3/2018 met with a number of martyrs' families.

His eminence called for more care and fairness for the families of martyrs and on material and moral levels.

His eminence called on everyone to take care of families of the martyrs, stressed that the task is not a state mission, but the task of government and society, and everyone should recognize the sacrifices of the martyrs and the patience of their families.

His eminence indicated that housing and quality education are the rights of all, let alone if the needy of these matters are the families of martyrs, stressed that moral support and commemoration of martyrs are not less than material support.
