

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: The people have a clear vision to assess matters and give confidence to those who deserve

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met with

□South of Central Euphrates Gathering in Najaf Thursday 8/3/2018

□His eminence indicated that the picture has become clear to the Iraqi people over the previous experiences, and today the people have to give confidence to those who deserve, pointed out that accusing everyone is not true and there is many honests in this country.

His eminence stressed that a lot of world countries see Iraq rising and a great power, which led to its support and have mutual interests with Iraq, pointed to the necessity of striving to build the state basing on vision, plans, programs and the team and electing statesmen known of integrity and efficiency, stressed that the vote in the election is a testimony, therefore it must be given to the honest and efficient candidates.