

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim meets Dr. Iyad Allawi to discuss latest developments in the political situation and the upcoming elections

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met with Vice President Dr. Iyad Allawi Sunday 11/3/2018.

His eminence with Allawi discussed the latest developments in the political situation and the upcoming election. His Eminence stressed the importance of calmness for holding elections in a competitive atmosphere, and away from prejudice, political discrediting and negative generalization.

His eminence called on everyone to assume their responsibilities in order to give the ideal image of the democratic process, and cooperation among each other to succeed in order to reflect the maturity of the Iraqi democratic experiment. His eminence pointed out that the world is looking at Iraq with great respect and it is necessary to invest this reading to work on building the state and achieving the fourth victory.