

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Baghdad International Fair is another proof to the security and stability of Baghdad and entire Iraq

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, visited Baghdad International Fair 1/4/2018 and indicated that Arab and international companies and publishing houses rush is an added proof that Iraq and the capital of Baghdad enjoys security and safety, praised the presence of youth at the book fair and the presence of the Iraqi family.

His eminence pointed that Iraq has ended the Daesh phase and only sleeper cells are existing which are under ongoing security operations, however Daesh still exist in extremist and deviant ideas, noted that the existence of intellectual and cognitive activities will create positive climates and result in declining deviant ideology in Iraq's society.