

Meeting with Feyli Kurds delegation, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim emphasizes real political representation of all components

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, at his office in Baghdad met with delegation of the Feyli Kurds Monday 9/4/2018

His eminence stressed the importance of the diversity of the Iraqi society and the importance of all components' presence through real political representation, stressed on the national project as an entry to attain rights, particularly Feyli Kurds population.

His eminence commemorated the big numbers of Feyli Kurds martyrs during facing the former regime, indicated that they were subjected to doublefold of injustice, on ethnicity level because they are Kurds and on sectarian level because they are followers of Ahl al-Bayt (peace be upon them). His eminence congratulated the establishment of the Iraqi Alliance for the Feyli Kurds, considering this a step forward in the right direction.
