

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim meets Nujaifi to discuss the latest political situation and the upcoming elections

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met the Vice President Osama Nujaifi at the latter's office in Baghdad Monday 9/4/2018

His eminence with Nujaifi discussed the latest political situation and the upcoming election. His eminence stressed creating appropriate environment for elections and compete bsing on electoral programs away from political dichotomy, warned of those taking advantage of sectarianism or racial strife to win an electoral cycle. His eminence expressed satisfaction the talk among the majority political blocs about patriotism and state-building, called for resettlement of displaced people to their areas and providing basic services to them.

His eminence pointed out that the national majority is the solution for the next phase, because it depends on representation of the components and provides the equation of pro-government and opposition in the political system, and pointed the importance of preserving the victories achieved at the political, social and military levels by winning the state-building building project to crown the victories, and reiterated warning of Daesh sleeper cells activity and existence of extreme deviant ideology that need cultural and intellectual solutions and assuming responsibility by everyone.

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim highlighted the positive worldview towards Iraq as the rising country in the region, called for investing this positive vision to build the best relations with all on the basis of the Iraqi interest, making Iraq a bridge for communication and resolve disagreements in the region.