

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Reforming the Iraqi situation is in hands of the people through electing the right competent campaigners with a project, vision and plan

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, attended a tribal gathering of Al-Sawa'id tribes Friday 20/4/2018

His eminence indicated that reforming the Iraqi situation is in hands of the Iraqi citizen through electing the right competent campaigners those with project, vision and realistic plans, called for investing and not loosing the opportunities.

His eminence stressed that winning the services challenge is the responsibility of the Iraqis and they have to carry out this task to be a culmination of achieved victories, pointed out that this task is difficult, but not impossible if managed by an efficient and honest team with a vision, plan and project.

His eminence touched upon some of the successful projects in the world that have similar experiences to Iraq, stressed the importance of benefiting from these experiences, citing Iraqi experiences were accomplished during the time of financial scarcity and lack of resources, including the of the Ministry of Youth and Sports.