

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls for justice to the working class and cushioning unemployment

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in a speech marking International Labor Day, in his office in Baghdad Tuesday, May 1, 2018 called to do justice for workers class through enactment of laws to ensure free and decent life for them.

His eminence congratulated the working class and urged the legislative and executive authorities in Iraq to exert all efforts in order to enact legislations and laws to ensure justice for this important class and secure the requirements of a free and decent life.

His eminence pointed to the need of eliminating unemployment through advancement of private sector and investment of the Iraqi workforce in building the nation and achieve self-sufficiency for the Iraqi market.