

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: The Al-Hikma National Movement won by empowering youth and giving them roles and spaces

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in public ceremony to introduce candidates for Rusafa district Baghdad Friday 5/4/2018, indicated that the movement has won by empowering youth and giving them roles and spaces, expressed happiness with the political entities' advocating empowering youth and giving them opportunities, pointed out that empowering youth does not mean neglecting other segments of society, but it means caring for society as parents are concerned of their children future and finding the desired employment. His eminence pointed to Iraq's past and current roles in the light of its history and geographical location, located in the heart of the Middle East, the heart of the world, stressed the need to bring about the desired change without exaggerated slogans. His eminence called for investing the current opportunity to elect the most capable to provide service to the people, indicated that 2018 priorities are completely different from the priorities of 2003, stressed that the fate of Iraqis is made by their hands so they must not be in frustration and despair.