

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with Brett McGurk to discuss elections results and the national mobility to form the government

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received the US Special Presidential Envoy for the Global Coalition to Counter ISIL, Brett McGurk, Friday 18/5/2018

His eminence with McGurk discussed local and regional developments and results of the recent Iraq elections and the national movement to form the future government

His eminence emphasized on ability of Iraq to complete the process of change, which began by elections, indicated the importance of forming an active national majority government able to meet people's aspirations, stressed the necessity of adhering to constitutional deadlines of forming the upcoming government .