

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with delegation of Kurdistan Democratic Party to discuss alliances and forming the government

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received delegation of the Kurdistan Democratic Party Tuesday 22/5/2018

His eminence with delegation discussed forming the future government and alliances required to form the government of the national majority.

His eminence stressed the importance of forming a government of service, not a government of crisis, a government that respects the law, not a government above the law, stressed the importance of agreeing on programs and deadlines.

His eminence pointed out that the elections came after the victories achieved in Iraq on political, military and social levels, pointed out that success in the challenge of state-building will preserve and culminate achieved victories.