

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim receives French Ambassador Bruno Aubert to discuss bilateral relations between Iraq and France

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received the French ambassador Bruno Aubert and discussed bilateral relations between Iraq and France Tuesday 29/5/2018

His eminence indicated that Iraq has demonstrated commitment to its own democratic experience through recent elections, noted the importance of forming a national majority government capable of achieving service away from crises.

His eminence called for calmness and avoid escalation in the region, indicated that escalation will not serve anyone and will undermine regional and international security.