

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives Japanese ambassador to Baghdad Fumio Iwai to discuss developing relations

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received Japanese Ambassador to Baghdad Fumio Iwai Wednesday, 30/5/2018

His eminence with Iwai discussed means to develop relations between Iraq and Japan, called on to invest in Japanese companies stressed achieving reconstruction, economic development and services to people, noted the need to prioritize these goals for the next phase to compensate the Iraqi people for times of instability.

His eminence covered forming the future government, noted that Iraq needs an active government capable of meeting the aspirations of Iraqis.