

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim warns of losing votes of voters

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid the Ammar al-Hakim, expressed his deep concern about the fire incident of Electoral Commission warehouses that damaged ballot boxes and voting machines, warned from loss voters' votes, considering that voters went through all sorts of circumstances elect who speaks on their behalf, called on the higher authorities to form an investigation committee to find out the reasons of this great breach, called on the related sides to take the utmost care and caution in maintaining warehouses of ballot boxes throughout the country and prevent manipulating them, urged everyone to exercise restraint and maintain political stability, think calmly away from reactions during the current and future phases.