

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives the Italian ambassador to discuss bilateral relations

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received Italian Ambassador to Baghdad Marco Carnelos Wednesday 13/6/3018

His eminence with Carnelos discussed bilateral relations between Iraq and Italy and developments of the Iraqi political scene, reiterated his call to look at all the problems that have plagued the electoral process through legal and constitutional methods, taking into account the timing stipulated by the Constitution, pointed out the need to pay attention to popular anger that manifested in elections boycott by large numbers of the Iraqi people, and these facts should be considered when forming the future government.

His eminence stressed on making the future government a government of service away from crises, called to select qualified people capable of achieving aspirations and serve the people.