Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives political body of Saairun Alliance headed by Dr. Nassar al-Rubaie to discuss latest developments in the political situation in Iraq

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received the political body of the Saairun Alliance headed by Dr. Nassar al-Rubaie with body members Raed Fahmi Jahid and Tariq al-Khikani Saturday 22/9/2018

His eminence discussed with them the latest developments in the political situation in Iraq and forming the future government, indicated the importance of completing the constitutional entitlements and form a strong and functioning government with a realistic program based on priorities and under specific timeframes.

His eminence stressed consolidating the Alliance of Reform and Reconstruction considering this alliance cross-sectarian and inclusive for all, and a new initiative for political action that contributes to tackling the failures, and called for more consultations with the parties to reach unity on the national level.
