

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim participates in the Leadership Body of Reform and Reconstruction Alliance to discuss latest political situation forming the government

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, participated in the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance meeting to discuss the latest political situation, forming the government and activate the Council of Representatives during the next phase Babylon Hotel Baghdad Sunday 23/9/2018

Meeting outcomes were several recommendations, including emphasizing maintaining the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance making to become a national political project with an effective institution to develop and strengthen the political situation plus assigning heads of parliamentary blocs comprising the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance and called to agree on a unified position before convening Council of Representatives meetings.

The meeting stressed on the importance of openness to Kurdish political powers and Al-Bina (building) Alliance powers to form the government, urged Kurds meeting participants to resolve issue of Iraq's presidency position in accordance with national criteria, conferees stressed to address movement among representatives from one lists to other lists and other blocs to be reflected in the election law plus unifying the government program, consultation on strategic issues and the selecting important positions.