

Meeting with the French ambassador. Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim confirms Iraq's endeavor to towards balanced relations based on common interests

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received the French ambassador to Baghdad, Mr. Bruno Aubert Sunday 30/9/2018

His eminence with Aubert discussed the bilateral relations between the two countries on the basis of common interests, his eminence indicated that Iraq today is seeking to develop relations that serves all.

The meeting witnessed a review of developments in the political scene in Iraq and the region, his renewed his call for the Kurdistan blocs to conclude nominating the candidate for the President post as it is of a great importance and represents the front of Iraq to the world, in addition to the importance of this action to complete the constitutional entitlements and the process of forming the government, his eminence stressed the importance of having a government that is strong and capable of promoting services and development aspects the country.