

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim with Dr. Salim Al-Jubouri to discuss completion of the government cabinet and provision of services

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received Dr. Salim al-Jubouri Tuesday 14/11/2018

His eminence with Jubouri discussed the latest developments in the political situation, completion of the government cabinet and the mechanism of services delivery.

His eminence stressed the importance of completing the ministerial reshuffle so that the government can implement the government program, and the need to provide services, improve job opportunities and fight corruption, urged to select competent, honest and efficient people who possess sincerity and management capacity.

Regarding the legislative situation, his eminence called on maintaining communication between the legislative and executive authorities, stressed on the importance of completing legislations that are for the interest of the citizen, contribute to the process of progress and achieve aspirations.

Regarding the regional and international affairs, his eminence emphasized the position of Iraq, which rejects the policy of international axes, pointing to Iraq's interest in establishing best relations based on common interests.