

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls on expediting completing government cabinet to provide services and fight corruption

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met with Dr. Salim al-Jubouri Thursday 22/11/2018

His eminence discussed government and political matters and institutionalization of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, called on to complete the government cabinet to provide services and combat corruption.

His eminence stressed the importance of working on priorities; provision of service and comprehensive development to combat corruption, reiterated his support to the government in implementing its development and service program.

Regarding institutionalization of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, his eminence pointed out the importance of working together to complete institutionalization in order to enable the Alliance's broad national role towards achieving major goals set by the Alliance for itself.