

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim heads the first meeting of the Political Authority of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance

The Political Authority of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance held its first meeting under the chairmanship of head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, and attended by the Alliance's members of the Political Authority Sunday, 9/12/2018

The meeting covered developments of the political situation in the country and the region, and particularly the completing the government formation, stressed on the need to expedite completion so that the government can implement its program. The meeting also discussed future roles of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance in addressing crises and achieving convergence of views on various issues.