

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with Patriotic Union of Kurdistan to discuss developments of the political situation and completing government cabinet

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received a delegation of the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan Thursday 12/20/2018. His eminence with delegation discussed latest political situation in Iraq and completing government's cabinet, indicated the importance of using accumulated advantages of the Iraqi political experience. His eminence pointed out the importance of completing the government cabinet so that the government start implementating governmental program, provide services, combat corruption and provide job opportunities, called for enacting important laws that serve citizens and meet the interest of the political process, and complete the political system structure, stressed on harmony within the Council of Representatives, waiver to public interest and finding common understandings, and to sense the challenges surrounding Iraq, as well as emphasis on excluding Iraq from regional and international axes and making Iraq a stage for meeting, not a place for intersection.

